1. Supply of Goods and Services

Vendor shall provide commercial inventory management and fulfillment services in accordance with purchase orders issued by Buyer from time to time. All goods supplied must comply with standard manufacturing specifications.

2. Term and Automatic Renewal

The initial term of this Agreement shall be two (2) years from the Effective Date. The Agreement will automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms unless Buyer or Vendor gives written notice of non-renewal at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the current period.

3. Pricing and Payment

Prices for the initial two (2) years shall remain fixed as set forth in Exhibit A. Payment of approved invoices shall be due net forty-five (45) days following physical delivery and verification of items.

4. Right to Audit Books and Records

Buyer or its designated independent auditor shall have the right, upon forty-eight (48) hours notice, to enter Vendor's premises during business hours to inspect, review, and audit books, operational records, and quality control logs.

5. Liquidated Damages for Late Delivery

Timely delivery is of the essence. If Vendor fails to deliver shipments by the confirmed purchase order delivery date, Vendor shall pay Buyer liquidated damages of $150,000 for each week of delay, without prejudice to any other legal remedies Buyer may possess.

6. Unilateral Termination

Buyer may terminate this Agreement immediately without penalty upon written notice if Vendor experiences a material operational disruption or if Buyer determines in its sole discretion that continuation is economically undesirable.

7. Indemnification and Defense

Vendor agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Buyer, its officers, agents, and affiliates against any and all claims, property damage, third-party injuries, or product liabilities arising out of or resulting from the goods supplied under this Agreement.

8. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performance resulting from acts of God, war, pandemic, government embargoes, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the impacted party, provided prompt written notice is given.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement and any dispute arising out of or related to it shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding its choice of law rules.
